Lorraine Turner's Colorful World

Where Mystical and Real Creatures Are Celebrated in Art

Welcoming Lorraine Turner to Dunrovin Ranch

Who is Lorraine Turner?

a child who was told she would never make it as an artist, who became a two-time Emmy winner for her work as the lead designer for the Philadelphia 76ers National Basketball Association a motivational speaker who travels worldwide, encouraging all ages from teens seeking careers to seniors desiring adult education.

a multiple Eisner award nominee in her role as the art director for the Library of American Comics, a company she co-owns with her husband Dean Mullaney.

a professional animal communicator who works by connecting to the animal's energy using photographs. She has taught this to children as young as eight.

an author of two books, "Calico Horses and the Patchwork Trail" and "Sæ-sii Meditation: How to Find Your Bliss in Fifteen Minutes a Day."

an internationally acclaimed textile artist who has been featured in television and magazines. All of her art supports endangered animals.
